What Types of Information Do We Collect From You?

Personally Identifiable Information (or "PII" or "Personal Data") is information that identifies you as an individual. In order for you to take advantage of particular opportunities provided through the websites (for example, to use for the services offered on the Site), we may require that you furnish PII. We and our third party service providers may collect Non-PII from you, including your MAC address, your computer type, screen resolution, OS version, Internet browser and demographic data, for example your location, gender and date of birth and we may aggregate PII in a manner such that the end-product does not personally identify you or any other user of the website. Additionally, we and our third party service providers may collect Non-PII when provided to us by you. We and our third party service providers may also use cookies, pixel tags, web beacons, and other similar technologies to better serve you with more tailored information and facilitate your ongoing use of our websites. Your IP Address is automatically assigned to the computer that you are using by your Internet Service Provider (ISP). This number is identified and logged automatically in our server log files whenever users visit the Site, along with the time(s) of such visit(s) and the page(s) that were visited. Collecting IP Addresses is standard practice on the Internet and is done automatically by many websites.

Why Do We Collect the Information from You?

If you register at any of our websites, you will no longer be anonymous to Intern Pursuit and you will be able to take better advantage of our services. We may be better able to fulfill your orders and requests to deliver your orders or provide you with information that you request. We can also inform you of products, programs, services and promotions that we believe may be of interest to you. Additionally we may use PII for our internal business purposes, such as data analysis, audits, developing new products, enhancing our websites, improving our services, identifying usage trends and determining the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns.

We reserve the right to ask you for your Intern Pursuit account information or an Intern Pursuit account number. We may ask you for information at other times, such as when you report a problem with our websites or services, or contact Intern Pursuit via the corporate or other e-mail addresses provided at the websites.
